It's Been Quite A Trip...

"None of us knows what the next change is going to be, what unexpected opportunity is just around the corner, waiting a few months or a few years to change all the tenor of our lives."

There is no human problem which could not be solved if people would simply do as I advise.
-Gore Vidal

Day in and day out, we are greeted by Officer Squires - a strong man with a friendly demeanor that has forever impacted our lives. He is a mentor who is trustworthy, understanding, and he truly "tells it like it is." He offers guidance and support when it is needed, but also provides good cheer and many laughs. Officer Squires protects us, keeps us in line, and openly shares his wisdom. In honor of his consideration, positive attitude, and his many smiles, we, the class of 2006, dedicate this year's Herald to Officer Danny Squires.

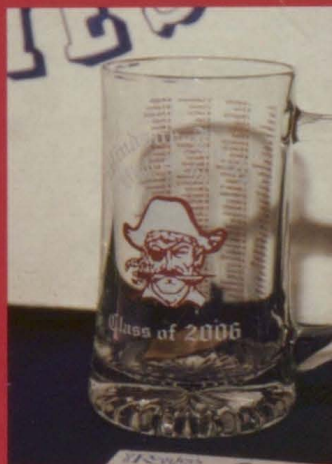

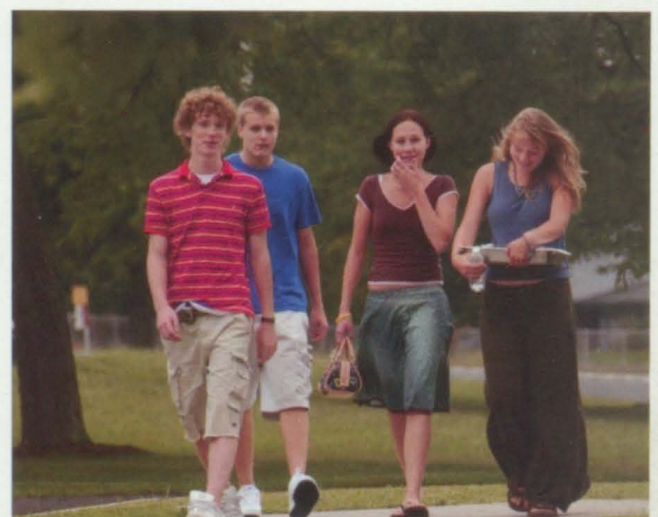

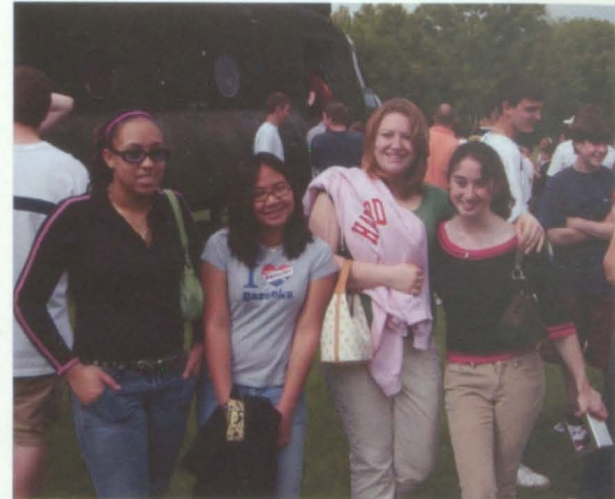

2006: the year most of us probably felt would never come. We have been working towards this moment since we began our academic career. Through the years, we have been traveling towards our destination: graduation. Many of us might look at this moment as the end of the road, but in reality it is a new path for us to journey down.

The majority of us have been together from the beginning, from the days of recess and nap time. We've watched people come and go, but we've managed to stay close. From the athletes to the scholars, to the musicians and the artists, there is a fire within each of us, a passion which drives us. It's hard to imagine what life would have been like somewhere else with different people. We compliment each other, fit together like a puzzle. Our class is a phenomenal class.

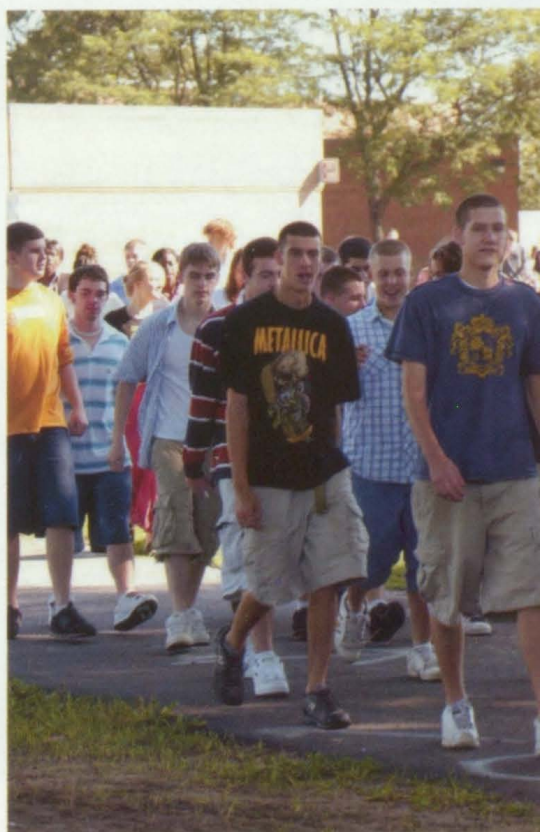

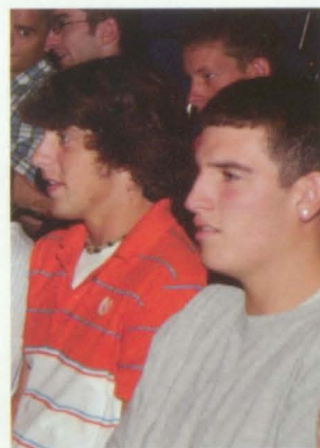

Now, before we leave Windsor Locks High School and travel in separate directions, let's take this opportunity to reminisce about our journey one last time. It may be hard to say goodbye, but hey, at least "It's Been Quite a Trip!"

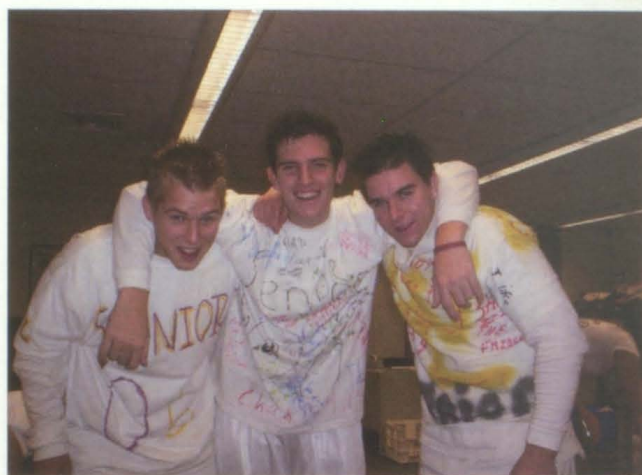

Good Times...

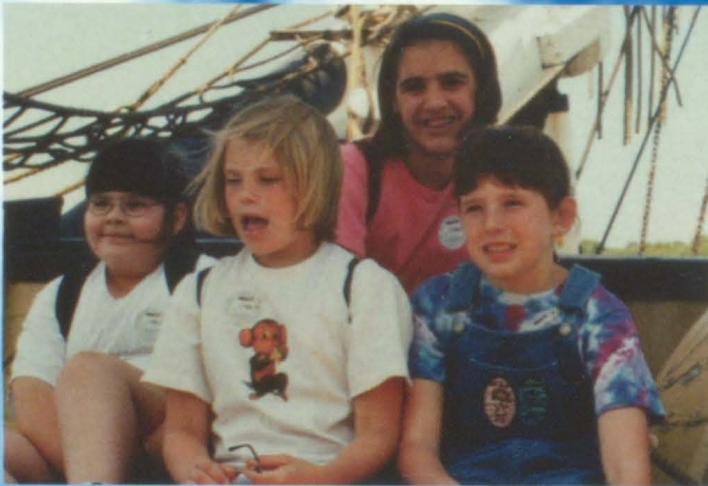

Na-na-na-na...Na-
na-na-na....hey, hey,
hey....goodbye....

-Bill Blackman

IT TAKES A LOT OF COURAGE TO RELEASE THE FAMILIAR AND SEEMINGLY SECURE, TO EMBRACE THE NEW. BUT THERE IS NO REAL SECURITY IN WHAT IS NO LONGER MEANINGFUL. THERE IS MORE SECURITY IN THE ADVENTUROUS AND EXCITING, FOR IN MOVEMENT THERE IS LIFE, AND IN CHANGE THERE IS POWER. -ALAN COHEN

Explore. Dream. Discover. - Mark Twain

It doesn't matter who you are, where you come from. The ability to triumph begins with you. Always. -Oprah Winfrey

Remember that many places you would like to see are just off the map and many things you want to know are just out of sight or a little beyond your reach. But someday you'll reach them all, for what you learn today, for no reason at all, will help you discover all the wonderful secrets of tomorrow. - The Phantom Tollbooth

I have learned, that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours. -

Time is not measured by the passing years, but by what one feels and what one achieves. - Jawaharual Nehru

Life is an opportunity, benefit from it.

Life is beauty, admire it.

Life is bliss, taste it.

Life is a dream, realize it.

Life is a challenge, meet it.

Life is a duty, complete it.

Life is a game, play it.

Life is a promise, fulfill it.

Life is sorrow, overcome it.

Life is song, sing it.

Life is a struggle, accept it.

Life is a tragedy, confront it.

Life is an adventure, dare it.

Life is luck, make it.

Life is too precious, do not destroy it.

Life is life, fight for it. -

Mother Teresa

Lauren,

You will always remember these past four years. You will remember the hard work, the things you did for fun, the teachers who made a difference, but by and large, you will remember the friends you have made.

We are proud of what you have achieved, and most of all, we are proud of the person you've become. You have a sensitive, compassionate, and kind heart that will be the foundation for pursuing your dreams. You see the good in people. It is all you need to be truly successful.

This is the end of only a short chapter in your life, and the beginning of new and wonderful experiences. Know that wherever your dreams take you, we love you and are with you always.

Love,

Dad, Mom, & David

My Dearest Ashley,

What we want for you most in life is for you to live life to its fullest and enjoy each and everything that you come across or up against. But most importantly, even if it's something at the time that doesn't seem right, fair, or whatever that you may learn from it, don't let it make you bitter...throw it over your shoulder and move on to things that matter.

Love with all of your heart, don't be afraid to express how you feel and show those who are worthy of your friendship and love everything that you have within you.

Always treat others the way you would like to be treated under the same circumstances and don't be afraid to stand up for someone that's not as strong as you may be...for your one action could change their entire life.

We are so proud of the woman you have become.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Karen,

With love to you as you graduate from high school! ("Finally, an end to the madness!"). We are so proud of you and all you've accomplished over the years. It's been a pleasure watching you grow into such a confident and capable young woman.

There's no doubt you'll succeed in all you do - you've got a great future in front of you...now smile!

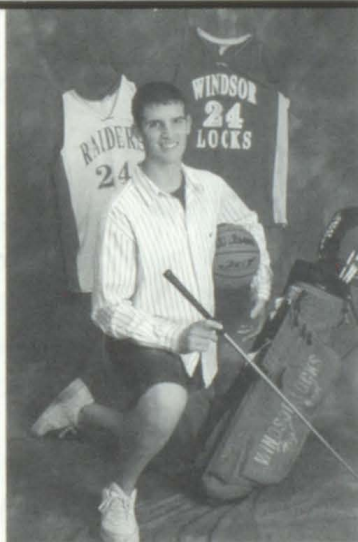

Love always,
Mom, Dad, and Kim

Dear Tim,

You have grown into a fine young man and we are proud of you. Graduating high school and going on to college means you will make many decisions. The choices you make will affect the rest of your life. We are confident that you will make the right choices, which in turn will bring you much success.

God Bless-Love ya!
Gram and Grampa Pearce

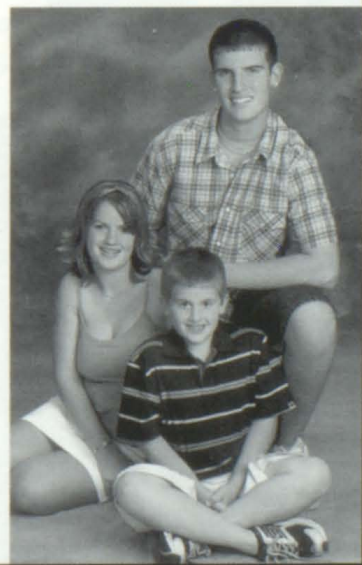

Congratulations Tim!

It seems like just yesterday you were that curious little boy anxious to start kindergarten. We have proudly watched you grow into the thoughtful and caring young man that you are today. Thanks for the wonderful memories that you have given us to cherish along the way. As this chapter of your life comes to a close, take with you all that you have learned and all that you have become and follow your dreams to the next chapters of your life. We are assured that with your honesty, integrity, dedication, and hard work that you will find success and happiness in whatever you choose to do.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Tim,
Thanks for always being there for us. We're so proud of you.

Jenny,

It is amazing when I think back to almost 18 years ago, when I held you in my arms within the first minutes you came into the world. I fell in love with you instantly. I could never have imagined what a beautiful and wonderful young lady you would become. I cannot believe that the day is already here that you are about to graduate from high school. We are blessed that you are a part of our family. We are very proud of you! Always follow your dreams and enjoy life to its fullest. We will always be by your side no matter where you are! Best wishes in your future. Congratulations, Kiddo! We love you.

Pooh-bear,

Wherever the future may lead, may you always have the wisdom and strength to follow your dreams and the courage and ambition to meet new challenges! Always follow your dreams and believe in yourself! You are a loving, caring, beautiful young lady who is very strong minded. Which makes you the very special daughter that you are. Congratulate yourself for all the things that you've accomplished, for the challenges you've met, that goals you achieved and for being someone very special. We are so very very proud of you!

Congratulations to our Pooh-bear!!

Love,

Mom and Greg

Through the years I have watched you grow from a beautiful baby girl to a wonderful young woman. I can remember so many times of our childhood and the things we have done together. And I always feel good knowing how much you always looked up to me and always wanted to be like your big brother. And the truth is, of all the things I have done, they would not have been possible without you by my side. You gave me strength when I needed it and always made me want to give all I had. You have been there when there was no one else. Not only are you the best sister, but a best friend. I have enjoyed every minute of growing up with you and can't wait to see what other adventures and challenges in life we will have and share together. But I know we can do anything because we have each other.

I am so proud of you!

Love "Brother"

Ronald Kenneth Apt

My Dearest Sarah,

I can't believe the time is here and that you are graduating from high school. I have proudly watched you grow into an extraordinary young lady. You are the light of my life and give me renewed joy everyday. This chapter must close and you now begin a new one. As sad and sentimental as I feel, I am very excited for you and what your future holds. Writer Elizabeth Knapp wrote a message to her daughter as she is almost grown and it begins, "Now that you are almost grown I look back and ask myself Did I tell you? Did I tell you all that I felt was important? Did I tell you or was it lost in the shuffle of our everyday lives. The busy full days when we taught and didn't know it. What did we teach? Was it strong? Was it good? Will it root you in something real that will allow you to grow with a firm and sound foundation? Did I tell you..." One thing I will always remember to tell you is that I love you dearly now, forever, and always. Congratulations, my daughter and best friend.

Love,
Mom

The one thing I always knew was Sarah would achieve success no matter the undertaking. She is one of the bright stars in my life, making my world a lovelier place.

If you could see through my eyes,

You have earned this moment and the right to be proud of your accomplishment.

Mom and Dad

John, it's definitely been a long journey. Through it all, you made it. But I'm not going to make this all sappy, so here it goes: Thanks for being my brother; you know I'll miss how mom always yells to get you up in the AM.

Love ya bro,
Lauren

P.S. Don't get into TOO much trouble.
Congratulations!

Maureen,

We've watched you grow into the extraordinary young woman you are today. As long as you never change and have that same determination, you will always accomplish your goals. Your energy and zest for life is an inspiration to those who know you. We are so very proud of you and all you have accomplished. Keep smiling, have faith and all your dreams will come true. We love you and will always be here for you.

Congratulations and best of luck!
All our love,
Mom

Maureen,

It doesn't seem possible that you have finished your first great stepping stone in life and are headed for your next. Just stay as you are because you are one in a million! You gave us so much enjoyment with your singing and dancing and we will miss it. Even though Jackie is not with us to share this milestone in your life, you know he would have wished you the best. We are very proud of you. Lots of luck and happiness in the future.

Love and best wishes always,
Grandma, Poppy & Jackie

I love that we've gotten so close...too bad I had to give you your own room for that to happen! I know you'll accomplish great things in college and beyond and remember, I'm always just a phone call away.

Lots of love Tango!
~ Megan

I taught you everything I know and you did the opposite. So technically... you're where you are because of me!!!
Congratulations and best of luck in the future.

Love,
Mike

Not only are you a good friend, you're the best little sister! Congratulations and good luck - you deserve it!

Love,
Mark

Proud of you,
Dad

Congratulations Amanda!!!

I can't believe time has gone by so quickly. I still remember the Bobba and good ole' Chilichunga like it was yesterday. You have grown into such a remarkable woman! You're strong, extremely intelligent, & always willing to take on any challenges that present themselves to you. These are just a few of the many things that make you the amazing, loving, and beautiful daughter that you are. Your grandmother would be so very proud. I love you with all of my heart, Amanda. May all your dreams come true.
Love,
Mom

Amanda Laffin-

Wow, these past 3 years have flown by. Tempo Adventures, Red Robin, CJ ALWAYS getting her way, Hannah's I-Pod, Monday nights @ the Pitz's, garbage bag raincoats, flood of '05, basketball, 1/2 day crew, & laughing at anything and everything. The memory list doesn't end. You're going to be great wherever you end up. Work hard, keep the procrastinating down, and lord knows you won't forget to have fun. There's going to be a huge hole in WL w/o you, but you better make room for us in your dorm. Thx for being the best Jarfin & friend anyone could ask for, but most importantly thx for just being you. Keep smiling!

Best of luck & ALL our love,

Christine "Jarfin", Kim P, Hannah, Munson

The Business
Department wishes

Jess,
I'm so proud of you. I hope that you do well in all things in your life as you did in school. I love you so much and I'm so very proud.

Love,
Mike

Congratulations.
We are very proud of your achievements. Remember that this is only the beginning of your adulthood and we will be always there for you.

Love,
Mom & Daddy

Sarah,

It seems like only yesterday that we brought you home from the hospital, our bundle of joy. We knew then that you were destined to do great things. We are so very proud of you. You will achieve anything you set out to do. Please stay as sweet as you are and reach for the stars!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tyler, Allie, & Conor

Congratulations Jess!
You have done so well at WLHS. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, John, Alex, & James

You are my shining moon. You are my glistening sun. You are my inner peace. You are my abundant fun. You are my roaming land. You are my wavy sea. You are and always will be everything to me. We are so proud of you.

We love you.

-Mom, Dad, Mandy, and Christian

It seems like just yesterday, when you were born. Ten weeks premature, you were determined to leave your mark upon the world.

Daily, we are reminded of what a miracle you are, and a real blessing! Stay true to who you are. Always know we will always be here for you! We are so proud of you!

Lots of love,
(way past heaven)
Mom, Dad, & Matt

big as your beautiful smile. You've made great friends and wonderful memories. Go make the world a better place. We love you princess.

Mom, Dad, & Esai

Rebecca,

You are my baby girl. You are beautiful from the inside out. Parents rarely say to their child, thank you for being you. You have brought so much to my life. I am so proud of the young woman you have become and am so proud of where you're going. Set goals, work hard, but never lose sight of who you are and never, never stop laughing. Life is what you make of it.

Always,
Mom

Chris wants to know who will wake us up in the morning!

Chad,
Congratulations to you and the Class of 2006!

We have watched you mature to become a fine young man, a true friend and respected teammate. May you always be strong, independent, and confident! Always believe in yourself, continue to work - and play - hard and your future will be successful!

With all our love,
Mom, Dad, Brett, and Erik

CHAD,
THE SAYING "LAST BUT NOT LEAST"
SEEMS ESPECIALLY APPROPRIATE. SOME FOOTSTEPS YOU HAVE FOLLOWED, SOME ARE UNIQUELY YOURS. BEST WISHES FOR THE JOURNEY THAT LIES AHEAD OF YOU.

PROUDLY,
LISA, JEFF, KATE, AND SCOTT

Chad,

On your graduation, we congratulate you and wish you all the best for the future. Remember, "never let the fear of striking out keep you from playing the game." The rules in life are not much different from those on the diamond, watch and listen to the many coaches you will encounter and read the signs - and above all else, remember home plate is never more than 90 feet away! We are so proud of you!

Love,
Lynn, Steve, Alex, and Alyssa

Congratulations Chad,

Where have the years, between mashed potatoes at KFC and cupcakes on a soccer field, gone?

During this time you have grown to be a self assured young man. You have (and we have) enjoyed memorable athletic competitions. Your dedication to studying has brought you well deserved success. We wish you the best in the coming years. We love you and we are so proud to be your Grams and Gramps!
